Dear parents,

As you will now be aware, we have been enjoying our new topic, aptly named 'Peasants, Princes and Pestilence'. As well as learning about the horrors of the Black Death, we have been learning more about the not so varied diet of the time!

All the children will be having the chance to make Vegetable Pottage (also known as Poor Man's Soup) and bread rolls on the day. Consequently, we have decided to hold a Medieval Banquet on Friday 23rd March at 2pm in Stokes Hall for you to sample these delights. In keeping with the theme, if you or your child would like to come to the banquet dressed in appropriate medieval peasant clothing you are most welcome to do so. However, this is not compulsory!

Please indicate on the reply slip below whether you do or do not intend to come.

Kind regards

Mrs Latter, Mrs Kelsey, Miss Winn and Mrs Preston
